Approved For Release 2006/11/13 : CIA-RDP83-00415R000100150007-6

STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT—WAR DEPARTMENT

8 October 1946

Country: Poland/USSR

Subject: Airfields in the Lwow Region

25X1 Information date:

Evaluation:

Reference:

1. There are three airfields in the Lwow region:

   a. The old airfield at Skniłow which the Soviets have speedily put in commission and extended by building reserve hangars and additional billets for the ground personnel.

   b. The airfield in Sosiesina, constructed by the Germans and extended b the Red Army. It is an airfield with good installations.

   c. A new airfield in the course of construction on the sandy ground of Lewandowka.

Note: On one of these airfields (exact one not indicated) and in its vicinity is stationed one air force unit numbering approximately thirty aircraft, mostly fighters.

2. Levelling work was observed in the vicinity of Lwow at Brzuchowice and Zimna Woda; concrete mixers were also arriving. It was assumed that this work was preparatory to the construction of airfields.

25X1 25X1 Comment: the Second Soviet Army from Kharkow was stationed in this area.)

SECRET

ILLEGIB Notes: [redacted] of the wall

CONTROL U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

The airfield

c. Zimna Woda is about 4½ km northwest of Skniłow and Brzuchowice (about 10 km north of Skniłow).

Major D. T. Kellett
Washington Liaison Branch
Intelligence Division
Room 2-D-814, Pentagon

Comdr. U. H. Packard
Via Lt. J. E. Bulfer
2169 Que Building
Assistant Chief of Air Staff-2
Room 5-E-Pentagon
Attention: Major James Hanscom
Library Branch

8 October 1946

Approved For Release 2006/11/13 : CIA-RDP83-00415R000100150007-6